

This folder contains a Python program for a road crossing game using the turtle graphics.

The turtle moves forward using the up arrow key. The turtle should reach the upper wall of the screen without colliding with a car (coloured rectangles). In every successful crossing the level increases by 1 and the cars move faster. If the turtle collides with a car the game is over.

